About me:

Hi, I'm Bailey Jae, founder of HAIRLOSS HEROES. I was diagnosed with Alopecia at the age of five.

I've been blessed to meet other kids that look like me and are facing similar challenges. It made me feel seen & accepted! I want to share that experience with as many children as possible, so I founded HAIRLOSS HEROES. Our mission is to Help, Encourage, Respect, Own, Embrace, and Support one another in this life changing journey. While creating a safe haven of inspiration and information for all children affected regardless of the diagnosis or severity.

Recently, one of my videos went viral. As a result, I had the opportunity to appear on GMA to share my story and raise awareness about juvenile hair loss! My plan is to encourage and educate others through as many outlets as possible. I can't wait to meet you!

-Bailey
